

Chapter 1

Chapter one covers intake procedures. Samples arriving after noon are logged for the next business day unless flagged urgent by the requesting engineer.

Chapter 2

Chapter two covers storage. Reactive materials stay in the annex cabinet; the main shelf is reserved for inert reference samples with published datasheets.

Chapter 3

Chapter three covers disposal. Every discarded sample needs a counter-signed disposal slip filed within one week of the disposal date.